

Student Outcomes

Upon completion of a Master's degree at Southwestern Adventist University, graduates will be able to:

1. Demonstrate knowledge and skills required by employers in the field
2. Contribute significantly to the knowledge and practice of the field
3. Exemplify a character of integrity and ethics in all scholarly and professional activities