

EDPY 540: Administration of Counseling and Guidance

This course addresses the philosophy and function of guidance and administration in counseling utilizing appropriate professional techniques in the field. This course also highlights the development, implementation and overall assessment of counseling programs with emphasis on current professional practices.

Credits: 3

Program: Psychology